SEEKING DIRECTORS AND READERS FOR STAGED READINGS

Gorilla Theatre Productions is seeking directors and readers for its 2001 Inaugural Dramatists Festival to be held September 14 - 22 in area coffee houses throughout Kansas City. The Inaugural Dramatists Festival is a series of staged readings of the winning plays from Gorilla Theatre's annual playwriting contest.

The readings will be free to the public. We are seeking readers of all genders, races, and ages. If you are interested in directing and/or participating in one of the staged readings, or if you have questions about the event, please contact Gorilla Theatre at 816-471-APES or by email at apes@gorillatheatre.org

Our annual playwriting competition has provided exposure for professional and amateur writers for ten years. It is one of the few cash prize playwriting contests in Kansas City. Many of our winning plays have received productions with Gorilla Theatre, including last year's winning play Death As Usual by Lawrence playwright Brendon O'Neill, which will receive a workshop production during the Inaugural Dramatists Festival at Gorilla Theatre's Apehouse on Friday and Saturday evenings, September 14 - 22. Past winning plays that have received a production include: Land's End, The Feast, The Southern Man, Gangs, Halloween, Butterfly, Ghost Writer and The Great FORD Debate.

Gorilla Theatre is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, volunteer based organization that relies on revenue from grants, donations, ticket sales, and advertising dollars to survive. In return, we offer Kansas City audiences a unique combination of entertaining and enlightening theatre unlike any theatre company in town, including our Greek show in Theis Park which draws hundreds of Kansas Citians annually.
