GORILLA THEATRE TO PRODUCE "THE CLOUDS"

Gorilla Theatre Productions' 12th Annual Sunrise Greek Show will be Aristophanes' comedy "The Clouds". This scathing lampoon of education, celebrity, and politics will be presented at 7:30 in the morning June 22, 23, 29, and 30 at Wheeler Amphitheatre along the banks of Brush Creek in Theis Park, 4901 Oak, Kansas City, MO. Begun as a grassroots effort in 1991, this annual tradition strives to keep the foundations of western theatre alive and relevant to the contemporary world.

Last year's production of "The Trojan Women" was attended by over 1,100 people, a record for the annual event. "The Trojan Women" received extensive local television and newspaper coverage and was listed in the Wall Street Journal's outdoor theatre guide. It was also listed as the 15th most significant cultural event in the Kansas City Star's list of the 100 Most Significant Arts & Cultural Events in 2001, ranking higher than any other theatre company outside of the Unicorn. Other nearby attractions include the Heart of America Shakespeare Festival, the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art, the Country Club Plaza Shopping District, the University of Missouri-Kansas City, the Brookside Shopping District, the Kansas City Art Institute, and Westport.

"The Clouds" is produced in cooperation with the Kansas City Parks & Recreation Department. Gorilla Theatre is a member of the Just Off Broadway Theatre Association.
